Bankers Association awarded Best Non-Profit Organisation 2016 in the banking sector

The Liechtenstein Bankers Association (LBA) has been chosen by British Wealth & Finance Magazine to receive the Wealth & Money Management Award in the category, Best Banking NPO 2016.

“Finance management can be a daunting and complicated task, and therefore many individuals, business people and families look to advisors to support and guide them through the complex process of managing their money. Those working in the wealth management industry often become much more than just advisors, developing strong relationships with clients and supporting them through thick and thin,” according to the jury of the Wealth & Finance magazine, which reaches monthly over 130,000 so-called high net worth individuals (HNWI), fund managers as well as private and institutional investors. “The 2016 Wealth & Money Management Awards are dedicated to rewarding and recognising the hard work and dedication of everyone working in the vast financial services industry, including asset managers, financial planners, HNWI services and specialist banking providers, in order to support clients through monumental life changes“, it continues.

This recognition of the Bankers Association is the first time that an award by the Wealth & Finance Magazine has gone to Liechtenstein. “We are delighted to receive this award, as it confirms that our daily efforts and the high standards that we set ourselves as an association and a service provider for our members, as well as our efforts to advance Liechtenstein as a banking and financial centre, are bearing fruit,” says Simon Tribelhorn, CEO of the LBA, commenting on the announcement of the award. “We are all the more delighted that we have been given this award by a British magazine. It represents proof that our work is also noticed and recognised beyond our own borders. At the same time it is an incentive for us to continue pursuing the path we have taken and the professionalisation of the Bankers Association as an innovative and modern trade association,” adds Tribelhorn.
